Member of

Our team

Mr. S Sundar, the founder and CEO is an avid traveler with a keen sense of the finer things in life. It is his dream to bring his own travel experiences to each of his customers.

The team at SMTT consists of poly-skilled and qualified people with a meritorious career record in various industries including travel, hotel management, automobiles and garments. They carry a combined expertise in field work, business administration, marketing and customer relations, and don't settle for anything below perfection.

We have the pleasure of satisfied and returning customers, eager partners and a dedicated team. It is also a thing of pride for us that some of our alumni have also gone ahead to carry their long experience at SMTT to set up their own travel services companies.
